Jim Weiss

In 1989, Jim Weiss set out on a mission: to record the greatest stories he knew from world literature and history, and inspire families - especially young listeners - with a passionate love of the original classics. In the more than three decades since then, Jim's narration and seemingly numberless character voices have formed foundational entertainment and education for millions of listeners around the world. Jim's literary recordings range from fairy tales through stories from Shakespeare, Dickens, and Conan Doyle, while his history recordings bring to vivid life major historical tales and personalities from the ancient world through the 20th century.

These thrilling tales have received more than one hundred major awards from organizations such as American Library Association, Parents' Choice Foundation, Oppenheim Toy Portfolio, and Film Advisory Board.

In 2016, Jim licensed his recordings to Well-Trained Mind Press, Since then, WTMP has successfully introduced Jim's work into still more markets, while Jim continues to write, record, teach, and perform.
